

DESCRIPTION FOR MODULE "Preparing object for insulation"

Module target	Creating an understanding of building components, basics of construction work, construction processes, construction terminology, safe work environment. Noting the application, installation and ergonomics of tools and accessories during the object preparation.
Module objectives	Understanding the building components and recognizing them in the object; Understanding the construction process and terminology; Understanding the object preparation operations; Interpreting object drawings; Knowing construction materials and their applications; Complying with work and fire safety regulations in the construction site, taking appropriate action if necessary by providing first aid; Communication with colleagues during the work process.
Module entry requirements	Basic education
Module assessment	After mastering the module, the student takes a theoretical knowledge test on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Construction basics;</li> <li>2. Construction terminology;</li> <li>3. Construction processes;</li> <li>4. Construction materials</li> </ol> and a practical task: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Recognizing building components;</li> <li>2. Performing the preparation and organization of construction site;</li> <li>3. Interpreting drawings;</li> <li>4. Recognizing construction materials.</li> </ol>
Module significance and location on the map	Module "Preparing object for insulation" is a base module for mastering other modules in the field of building insulation.